Cloud Security

As cyber threats continue to rise, businesses and industries are increasingly at risk. It is crucial for organizations to prioritize the protection of their information and that of their customers.

With the constant growth of cloud services, the need for cloud security certification becomes paramount. Cloud security ensures that organizations maintain confidentiality, integrity, and availability at the core of their businesses.

A RECENT SURVEY OF ORGANIZATIONS USING CLOUD SOLUTIONS REVEALED A CONCERNING PICTURE

These statistics paint a clear picture of the elevated security risks associated with cloud adoption and call for immediate attention and action from cloud providers and users alike.

MITIGATE CLOUD-SPECIFIC VULNERABILITIES AND THREATS

Identify and address vulnerabilities and threats specific to cloud services, reducing the risks faced by organizations.

DEMONSTRATE COMPLIANCE WITH INTERNATIONALLY RECOGNIZED BEST PRACTICES

ISO/IEC 27017:2015 certification signifies that your organization has adopted internationally recognized information security practices.

INSPIRE CUSTOMER AND STAKEHOLDER CONFIDENCE

By complying with cloud security standards, enhance the confidence of customers and stakeholders in your ability to protect their information.

BENEFITS OF IMPLEMENTING ISO/IEC 27017:2015

IDENTIFY RISKS ASSOCIATED WITH USING CLOUD SERVICES:

Conduct risk identification associated with using cloud services and implement appropriate mitigation measures.

ENSURE DATA PROTECTION AND BUSINESS CONTINUITY

Ensure that data remains protected, and business continuity is guaranteed even in a cloud environment.

MANAGE INFORMATION SECURITY IN CLOUD SERVICES

Obtain guidance for effectively managing information security, particularly in the context of cloud services.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE TO APPLY FOR ISO/IEC 27017:2015

ISO/IEC 27017 is particularly relevant for cloud service providers and organizations utilizing cloud services. It offers additional guidance and controls specific to the unique risks associated with cloud computing. Certification ISO/IEC 27017 demonstrates an organization's commitment to securing information in the cloud environment, promoting trust among customers and stakeholders.
